Dear Parents and Students,

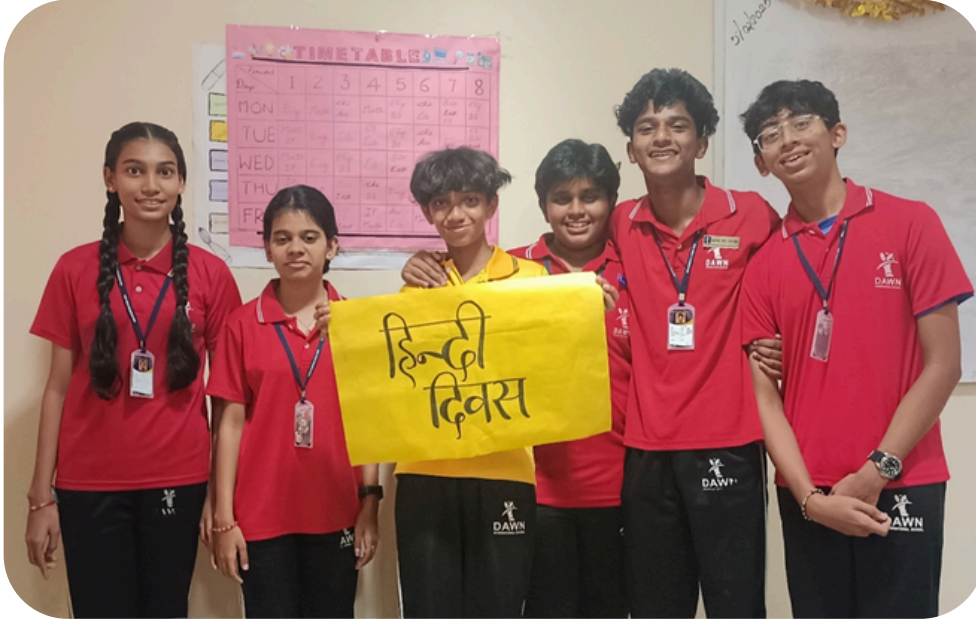

JANUARY, named after the Roman God, JANUS, symbolizes beginnings and endings. Let us gently tiptoe into the New Year and emerge with an unsullied puissance. We, the DAWN FAMILY, are all set to embark on our new journey with this issue of our newsletter.

The background is a vibrant purple and pink gradient. At the top, there are several white stars of different sizes and several white birds in flight. A large, dark purple archway frames the central text. At the bottom, there are stylized, fluffy white clouds. The overall theme is celebratory and festive.
